SERBIAN RESISTANCE IS UNABATED IN VIGOR

Field Marshal Von Mackensen's Army is Meeting With Greater Opposition Than Was Expected-Serbians Have Not Yet Fallen Back on Their Stronger Positions -Italians Are to Co-operate With Allied Fleet in the Aegean Sea-Russia May Surprise the Central Powers With Steps That Are Being Taken to Overcome Turkey Before Assistance Can Reach Her-There Has Been Plenty of Fighting on the Eastern and Western Front, But No General Offensive.

London, Oct. 18, 10 p. m.—The reports that the allies have occupied navy in the Aegean, where an allied Strumitsa and landed at Enos, which was recently transferred from Turkish for. to Bulgarian rule, has caused a more it meeting with greater resistance than was expected and, although it is probable that the Serbians eventually must fall back on stronger strategic needs that the stronger strategic needs to be a st able that the Serbians eventually must fail back on stronger strategic positions in the north, the fact that the allies are bringing heavy forces against the Bulgarians and so placing them that the Bulgarians will be compelled to divide their armies, gives hope here that the Germans may be balked in their latest attempt to reach the sea and hings assistance to the strateging of the sea and hings assistance to the strateging and they too, claim who are attacking, and they too, claim some strategic positions in the north, the fact that the either side attempted a general offensive. The Germans are still making a great effort between Riga and Dvinsk and have met with some minor successes, but thence to the Rumanian border, wherever there has been any fighting, it is expected the Russians who are attacking, and they too, claim who are attacking, and they too, claim

Teutons Meet Stubborn Resistance.
